

Merry Christmas!

A gift of hope has been given in your name that will provide for someone in need this Christmas.

For people whose lives revolve around agriculture, the rainy season provides a great opportunity for lay leaders to start new churches without damaging their livelihood. Unfortunately, the rain that frees them from farming also hinders their ability to travel.

May your heart be warmed as this gift blesses someone in a dynamic way this Christmas on your behalf.

